

HOLOCAUST LITERATURE SYMPOSIUM AN AFFILIATE OF THE AMERICAN LITERATURE ASSOCIATION

November 10-13, 2019 | The Betsy Hotel South Beach, Florida

Welcome to the 25th Annual Jewish American and Holocaust Literature Symposium!

Our Silver Anniversary Symposium celebrates 25 shared years of intellectual inquiry within the scope of Jewish American and Holocaust literatures. Join us as we continue those shared pursuits Sunday night, all day Monday and Tuesday, and Wednesday through lunch at roundtables, panels, readings, films, an exhibit, music and more. The JAHLit sponsored dinner at The Alley (in The Betsy Hotel) is Monday November 11, 5-6:30PM.

All sessions are in the BBar at The Betsy Hotel, located at 1440 Ocean Drive in South Beach.

There are 2 exceptions: SUNDAY Book launch is at Books&Books, 927 Lincoln Rd, Miami Beach and TUESDAY Keynote address with Ruby Namdar is at Jewish Museum of Florida-FIU, 301 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach.

Participants are strongly encouraged to attend all facets of the Symposium, including (always delicious) meals, academic sessions and cultural events. We have a record number of presentations and events this year. To ensure that we keep on schedule and that there will be enough time for discussion at the end of each panel, ALL panel papers are limited to fifteen minutes. Names of session chairs and participants' emails can be found in the back pages of the Program. Session chairs should request bios from their panelists prior to the session.

You are welcome to bring family and friends without cost to any of the Special Events listed below, which are also listed on The Betsy website as part of their community programming:

Thanks to Monica Osborne, and the assistance of Deborah Briggs and BooksandBooks, we continue to hold the JAHLit Book Exhibit, highlighting—and selling at a discount--JAHLit participants' recent book publications. Books by JAHLit presenters can be purchased (in some cases at discounted prices) at this webpage: https://shop.booksandbooks.com/jewish-american-and-holocaust-literature-conference Special thanks also to LMU Jewish Studies staff Margaret Butterfield, who designed the print program and Nina Gibson, who assembled the conference materials.

Additional Notes: If you are enjoying JAHLit for the first—or twenty-fifth—time, we want to encourage you to give back to this great organization. Thanks to members' donations to our Founders' Scholarship Fund (created in honor of JAHLit founders Alan Berger, Gloria Cronin, and Daniel Walden (of blessed memory)), this year we are able to help fund participation in the conference for four advanced graduate students. Please consider donating any amount so that we can continue to help scholars find their home here. With gratitude to the following JAHLit members: Victoria Aarons, Jeffrey Demsky, Sandy Goodhart, Hank Greenspan, Clare Katz, Sandy Marovitz, David Patterson, Eric Sundquist, and anonymous others. Donations may be sent to conference director Holli Levitsky at JAHLit, c/c Loyola Marymount University Jewish Studies Program, One LMU Drive, University Hall 3863, Los Angeles, CA 90045.

Finally, we are deeply grateful to Deborah Briggs and for the support of The Betsy Hotel and its philanthropic affiliates, PG Family Foundation, The Betsy Community Fund, and the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation in underwriting many aspects of the conference. We would also like to thank the Philanthropy, Arts, Culture and Education (PACE) team and the leadership of The Betsy-South Beach for their dedicated assistance with JAHLit over the past nine years. We look forward to our continued partnership! Thanks also to Oren Stier, who organized our new partnership with Florida International University and the Jewish Museum of Florida-FIU.

An Agadah of Hyam ben Samuel Hyam Plutzik

It is the function of a match to be scraped against roughness,

To flare to fire, and to become ashes.

Once there was a match in the days when matches could speak

That complained: "Why should I be hurt? The surface of the match box is unnecessarily rough.

I question the justice of the universe. Why cannot I and my friends Live in our match box in comfort and amity?

Is fire necessary?"

At which a gigantic voice cried out in the workshop:

"Both the beauty and utility of a match Are in their burning."

Autumn Psalm (excerpt) By Jacqueline Osherow

A full year passed (the seasons keep me honest) since I last noticed this same commotion.

Who knew God was an abstract expressionist?

I'm asking myself—the very question I asked last year, staring out at this array of racing colors, then set in motion by the chance invasion of a Steller's jay. Is this what people mean by speed of light? My usually levelheaded mulberry tree hurling arrows everywhere in sight its bow: the out-of-control Virginia creeper my friends say I should do something about, whose vermilion went at least a full shade deeper at the provocation of the upstart blue, the leaves (half green, half gold) suddenly hyper in savage competition with that red and blue—tohubohu returned, in living color.

Kandinsky: where were you when I needed you?

THE LAST RESORT Directed by Dennis Scholl & Kareem Tabsch

Long before Art Deco was a movement and prior to the arrival of the youth culture of MTV and Miami Vice, South Beach was home to the largest cluster of Jewish retirees in the country.

In The Last Resort, viewers embark on a journey to the iconic Miami Beach of yesterday thru the lens of young photographers Andy Sweet and Gary Monroe. With camera in hand, they embarked upon an ambitious 10-year project to document the aging population living in the sunburned paradise of 1970's Miami Beach and into the changing, turbulent 1980's. Working in different styles and approaches they captured the end of an era through engrossing black and white images by Monroe juxtaposed with Sweet's captivating candy-hued color photos. The result is one of the most fascinating photographic documentation's of a community ever caught on film.

Featuring interviews with Pulitzer prize winner Edna Buchanan, filmmaker Kelly Reichardt, Jewish Museum of Florida Executive Director Susan Gladstone and photographer Gary Monroe, The Last Resort is a celebration of some of Miami's greatest visual artists and a stunning testament to a community all but forgotten...until now.

Ruby Namdar was born and raised in Jerusalem to a family of Iranian-Jewish heritage. His first book, Haviv (2000), won The Ministry of Culture's Award for Best First Publication. His novel The Ruined House has won the Sapir Prize, Israel's most prestigious literary award. He currently lives in New York City with his wife and two daughters and teaches Jewish literature, focusing on Biblical and Talmudic narrative.

Eric J. Sundquist, the 2019 Hyam Plutzik scholar, teaches courses in American literature and culture, with special interests in African American literature, Jewish American literature, and the literature of the Holocaust.

Professor Sundquist's books include King's Dream (2009);Strangers in the Land: Blacks, Jews, Post-Holocaust America(2005), which received the Weinberg Judaic Studies Institute Book Award; To Wake the Nations: Race in the Making of American Literature (1992), which received the Christian Gauss Award from Phi Beta Kappa and the James Russell Lowell Award from the Modern Raised in Philadelphia, poet Jacqueline Osherow received her BA from Radcliffe College, Harvard University, and her PhD from Princeton University. She is the author of several collections of poetry, including Hoopoe's Crown (2005). Her debut collection, Looking for Angels in New York (1988), was chosen for the Contemporary Poetry Series. She has been awarded the Witter Bynner Prize by the American Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters, several prizes from the Poetry Society of America, and fellowships from the Guggenheim Foundation, the National Endowment for the Arts, and the Ingram Merrill Foundation.

ALSO FEATURING Cellist Jason Calloway, FIU Professor, and founder of Shir Ami

Cellist Jason Calloway has performed to acclaim as a soloist and chamber musician and as a devoted advocate of new music, Mr. Calloway has performed with leading ensembles around the world. He is artistic director of Shir Ami (www.shiramimusic.com), an ensemble dedicated to the preservation and performance of Jewish art music suppressed by the Nazis and Soviets, with which he appears frequently across the US and in the ensemble's varied performances in Austria, Hungary, and Italy. He has also performed across the US, Estonia, and Serbia in a duo with his wife, violinist Mari-Liis Päkk, which explores the rich contemporary literature for violin and cello. Jason Calloway is a graduate of the Juilliard School - and is a member of the Amernet Quartet.

A Night at the Garden

In 1939, 20,000 Americans rallied in New York's Madison Square Garden to celebrate the rise of Nazism — an event largely forgotten from American history. A NIGHT AT THE GARDEN, made entirely from archival footage filmed that night, transports audiences to this chilling gathering and shines a light on the power of demagoguery and anti-Semitism in the United States.

A NIGHT AT THE GARDEN was directed and edited by Marshall Curry and was supported and released by Field of Vision. The film was nominated for a 2019 Academy Award for Best Documentary Short; it was also an official selection at the Sundance Film Festival and was part of a special screening and panel discussion at the New York Film Festival. It was released on 22 Alamo Theater screens across the country and at The IFC Center in NYC.
